Proceeds from the raffle help support the Taft Museum of Art's outreach programs, such as Artists Reaching Classrooms (ARC). Recognized by the Ohio Museums Association as the "Best Educational Outreach Program," ARC reached 220 students from 11 local high school art classes this year. These students explored the Taft collection, met local artists, and exhibited their work in a public show. Your support will help us continue to discover new ways to share the Taft's treasures with our community.
