WHY JOIN THE TAFT MUSEUM OF ART?

When you join the Taft Museum of Art, you are not just supporting an exquisite, one-of-a-kind art collection, but a piece of history, and an institution that gives back to the community to which it is so deeply connected.

Often referred to as “Cincinnati’s hidden treasure,” the Taft Museum of Art, a National Historic Landmark, holds an internationally recognized art collection. The Taft also presents an ever-changing calendar of special exhibitions, award-winning educational programs, and vibrant community outreach aimed at all interests and age groups. The Taft Museum is a gift of Anna Sinton and Charles Phelps Taft, who in 1927 left their home and their carefully chosen personal art collection to the people of Cincinnati.

WHAT OUR MEMBERS ARE SAYING ...

“I feel being a member of the Taft is a gift I give myself, my friends and my community.”

“There are so many reasons to visit the Taft on a regular basis: great special exhibits, lectures, concerts, Taft in 10, Slow Art, or just stopping by to see a few of our favorite paintings.”

“The house was beautiful and the special exhibition was very interesting. It was a pleasurable experience and a great way to introduce art to children, as the museum is not too big.”
